

Glowlink Model 1000

Product Release

Version 2.10.1

New Features & Highlights

This Features and Highlights document describes performance enhancements and new features included in Glowlink's Model 1000 release version 2.10.1. Active participants of the Glowlink Model 1000 standard product maintenance plan will receive version 2.10.1 free of charge.

We highly recommend users of previous versions upgrade to version 2.10.1 in order to take full advantage of these improvements.

At A Glance: Version 2.10.1 New Features and Highlights

Listed below are new features and highlights contained in version 2.10.1. Please contact Glowlink for more details.

Enhanced System Performance, Features and Robustness

- 3X speed improvement
- Carrier detection and identification for 16 QAM
- Enhanced time-sharing of a Model 1000

Increased System Usability

- Graphical I,Q constellation display for signal performance at-a-glance
- Streamlined process for entering ground antenna parameters
- Increased video averaging capability
- Supports steerable antenna operation
- Improved usability for cross-pol measurements*

*Available with Model 1000 cross-pol isolation option

Availability

Version 2.10.1 will be distributed to subscribers of Model 1000 maintenance plan, with complementary updated Model 1000 User's Guide and upgrade instructions. Subscribers to the Model 1000 Total System Enhanced Maintenance (TSEM™) plan are eligible for Glowlink on-line upgrade assistance.

To find out more about Model 1000 and available maintenance plan and TSEM for a worry-free ownership experience, call us at (650) 237-0223 or email us at sales@glowlink.com